XXXV CIPS Congress 3rd -6th April, 2014

XXXV CIPS Congress in the Land of records:

- the oldest Republic in the world;
- UNESCO World Heritage site
- the longest-lived country (quoted by OMS, 2009);
- a Land rich in arte, culture and medieval traditions;
- centuries-old hospitality;
- eco-friendly destination: old-town closed to traffic with a friendly, flexible and lively city centre;
- hotels and Congress Centre walking distance of each other;
- easy to reach, thanks to its central position;
- a mix of quietness and entertainment: a plunge into the nature and history of this unique Land, enjoying its special social events.

San Marino is a Land to discover: a village that you can experience in a personalized way. The city centre, enclosed by mighty medieval stone walls and closed to traffic, is criss-crossed by narrow streets, lined with buildings and monuments, testimonies of the glorious past of the ancient Republic.
